DOINGS OF NORTH END

Councilman Ross and Golden Have Been Mixing Things.

BRUTAL HUSBAND'S AWFUL ACT

Frank Moran Narrowly Escapes a Coat of Tar and Feathers—Mr. Golden Wants to Know What Mr. Ross is Going to Do About It—Morrison an Artful Dodger—Kellow-Lewis Wedding.

A domestic altercation which might have resulted in a tragedy and which did bring a brutal husband, next door to a coat of tar and feathers, was enacted on West Market street Tuesday.

Frank Moran and his wife recently moved from Hyde Park into one of the houses owned by W. B. Christmas. Their domestic life had been anything but pleasant and during a quarrel over a trivial matter while at dinner Moran seized a kettle of boiling water from the stove and began pouring the scalding fluid upon the defenceless woman.

The wife's shrieks of agony and terror soon brought a crowd of persons upon the scene and when they comprehended what a fiendish act Moran had performed they suggested a coat of tar and feathers as a punishment. Wiser counsel prevailed among a few, and Moran was handed over to the police. Meanwhile the sufferings of Mrs. Moran were intense and pitiful; the upper part of her body was a mass of blisters.

Dr. Murphy was called and applied palliative remedies. It is not thought that Mrs. Moran's injuries are fatal.

COUNCILMAN AT ODDS AND ENDS.

Friends of Mr. Ross and Mr. Golden Await the Result.

The latest local political tilt of the North End between Councilman Ross and Councilman Golden, both of the First ward, has caused considerable discussion and some amusement.

Mr. Ross recently hired a number of Hungarians to do some grading on North Main avenue. When the work was completed and the pay rolls were taken to Mr. Golden for his signature, the common councilman refused to sign them. His excuse is that the taxpayers are idle and need work.

It does not appear from Mr. Golden's standpoint whether the Hungarians are taxpayers or not, nor whether or not the men are entitled to pay for honest labor properly performed. Also, Mr. Golden, it is a pretty middle and Mr. Golden has assumed a what-are-you-going-to-do-about-it attitude, while the friends of both parties wonder if the dignity of the two city legislative bodies will really have to settle it.

ON UNSUSPECTING WOMEN.

Man Named Morrison Gets Dollars Under False Pretenses.
North End people of credulity should be on the alert for a man named Morrison, who is a very smooth and plausible individual who relies upon these qualities to worm good dollars from unsuspecting women.

His most recent call was at the home of Patrick Campbell, of William street. Mrs. Campbell was told that her husband wanted $2 Morrison's manner was reassuring enough to receive the money. Mrs. Campbell learned of her mistake when her husband arrived home.

Her description of the individual was perfect enough to secure his apprehension after a brief period. He admitted his guilt and was released after he had returned the money.

KELLOW-LEWIS WEDDING.

Will Occur Wednesday, June 23, in Assembly Room of City Church.

On Wednesday morning, June 23, in the Assembly Methodist Episcopal church, Green Ridge, will occur the wedding of Miss Gertrude Laura Kellow, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Kellow, of Monsey avenue, to Edward Wallace Lewis, of Chicago.

Miss Kellow is a highly accomplished and popular young lady, whose many friends extend their well wishes.

OTHER NORTH END NOTES.

Miss Hattie Thomas, of East Market street, has been ill for the past week.

The Electric Literary and Social club have handsomely furnished rooms on Mary street, where they assemble every evening for the purpose of conducting current events. The members of the club are a progressive body of young men, eager and willing to profit by discussion and research. The literary talent of the club is being developed to a great degree.

THE TWELFTH WARD CONTEST.

Further Testimony Heard Before the Commissioners Yesterday.

There was another hearing in the Twelfth ward contest election cases before Commissioners W. C. Taylor, Thomas and W. W. Baylor yesterday afternoon in the arbitration room.

The voters of the old Twelfth ward in force but expressed themselves as far from pleased at the idea of having to abandon their usual occupations and appear before a commissioner to prove that they had a right to cast a vote at the election last February.

WEST SIDE.

Funeral of Mrs. Robert Walton, of Lawrence Street.

The many friends of the late Mrs. Robert Walton, of Lawrence street, gathered at the family home yesterday morning, where brief funeral services were held. The cortege, followed by a large concourse of people then moved to St. Patrick's church, where a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at 9 o'clock, Rev. J. B. Whelan officiating.

CLEVER YOUNG LADIES.

Gave a Fine Entertainment at St. David's Schoolroom on Jackson Street.

St. David's schoolroom on Jackson street, was crowded last evening upon the occasion of the performance of a comedy entitled "Who's to Win Him?" The performance exceeded the anticipations of the audience and showed evident signs of careful preparation and rehearsal. Charles Fraser excited roars of laughter by his humorous acting. Charles Blume acted his part exceedingly well as also did Louis Howell as a young officer in search of a wife.

Miss Helen Hoyer as the heroine, captured the young officer very successfully and to the entire satisfaction of her admirers. Miss May Fisher showed great aptitude for her part and was appreciated by the audience. Miss Mamie Elsbinger entered splendidly into the spirit of her role of Arabella and was thoroughly successful. Miss Maud Fisher carried out the "romantic" young lady with great success and Maggie Phillips met with a good reception as Minnie who was exceedingly fond of dancing.

LITTLE WEST SIDE NEWS NOTES.

Miss Emily Anthony, of Binghamton, is visiting friends here.

F. J. Johnson, of North Rebecca avenue, was in Duryea yesterday.

The Druid Glee society will meet this evening in St. David's hall.

The parlance of the Western Presbyterian church is now being moved across the street.

Mrs. Michael McGill, of Tenth street, has returned from a week's visit with friends in Pittston.

Mrs. Henry Collins and Mrs. Richard Williams both of Pittsburg, are visiting friends on this side.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. O'Hara, of Van Buren avenue was buried yesterday afternoon. Interment was made in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

A vote of thanks was tendered to T. Elsworth Davis, of the firm of Davies & Griffin, for the Harmonic Choral society for his financial support during the Pittston contest.

Miss Ada Farrington, of North Hyde Park avenue, was tendered a party by her many friends on Tuesday evening. A most enjoyable time was the result. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

The following officers were recommended for the Philharmonic Choral society: President, Richard D. Thomas; vice president, John H. Phillips; secretary, Thomas Marshall; treasurer, John D. Richards; conductor, Thomas Watkins.

The excursion of Robert Morris Lodge, Order of American Veterans, to Lake Ariel, takes place this morning. Special cars will leave Hyde Park at 7:43 o'clock. The train will leave the Erie and Wyoming Valley Railroad depot at 8:30 o'clock and several hundred will attend. Music for dancing by Hayes orchestra.

Peter Malloney, a resident of North Main avenue, got into an angry dispute in the saloon of Hagan & Moran yesterday. In the heat of passion he threw a beer glass, which was intended for the head of a bystander, through one of the front windows. He was arrested and placed in the West Side station house.

A souvenir strawberry festival was given last evening in the First Welsh Baptist church by classes 22 and 25 of the Sunday school. A very large number of people were present. A programme of a literary and musical nature was rendered. Much credit is due Miss Sarah Meredith and Emile Evans, the teachers, who had the affair in charge.

David Charles Roberts, a one-legged man well known on this side, created quite a scene on Main avenue and Jackson street last evening. He was driving a horse attached to a light buggy up Jackson street, and being in a drunken condition slipped from the seat and fell between the wheel and box of the vehicle. The timely action of a few bystanders saved him from injury.

HERO OF WINCHESTER.

Work Being Done Toward Securing a Monument for Him.

The ways and means committee of the Sheridan monument association met last night in the board of trade rooms.

Chairman Captain P. DeLacy read a partial list of committees and sub-committees. It was not thought advisable to mention the names of those appointed until the committees are completed.

The following press committee was named: James C. Vaughan, John E. Roche, Fred W. Martin, Thomas J. Moore and E. L. Wormser.

On motion of Thomas J. Moore, pre-ceded by a eulogistic statement of the earnest work of C. G. Boland, the board gave a vote of thanks to Mr. Boland.

Secretary Vaughan exhibited a drawing of General Sheridan from the brush of War Artist James E. Taylor, of New York. The design is intended as a certificate of membership to those who assist in the material encouragement of the association.

P. W. Costello, of the city engineer's department, is at work on a design of General Sheridan as he is represented when rallying his troops at Cedar Creek.

It was decided to call a meeting of the plan of campaign committee to be held at the office of Samuel Samter next Sunday at 3:30.

The intention of the association is that when all the committees throughout the county are ready to begin work, public meetings will be held in the different towns up and down the valley for the purpose of arousing enthusiasm.

The plan of campaign committee will report at the meeting next Wednesday night the best method for raising subscriptions.
